Raising a concern/complaint

If a candidate (or his/her parent/carer) has a general concern or complaint about the centre's delivery or administration of a qualification he/she is following, Braidwood Trust School for the Deaf encourages him/her to try to resolve this informally in the first instance.

A concern or complaint should be made in person, by telephone or in writing to Charlotte Nock, Head Teacher.

If a complaint fails to be resolved informally, the candidate (or his/her parent/carer) is then at liberty to make a formal complaint.

How to make a formal complaint

To make a formal complaint, the claimant should refer to Section 6 the school Complaints Procedure Policy. Formal complaints should be submitted using the appropriate channels of communication, including the use of the Complaints Procedure Form. All complaints shall be considered whether made in person, by telephone, in writing or electronically via email. All complaints will then be investigated in line with the school's Complaints Procedure Policy. The Complaint Procedure Policy and Complaints Procedure Form can be found on the school's website.

How a formal complaint is investigated

The head of centre will further investigate or appoint a member of the senior leadership team (who is not involved in the grounds for complaint and has no personal interest in the outcome) to investigate the complaint and report on the findings and conclusion

Internal appeals procedure

Following the outcome, if the complainant remains dissatisfied and believes there are clear grounds, an appeal can be submitted.

Following receipt of a stage two outcome, the complaint should be made in writing to the chair of governors within 10 school days. Written acknowledgement of the complaint will be made within three school days. This will inform the complainant that a complaints appeals panel (CAP) will hear the complaint within 20 school days. Refer to section 6.3 of the school's complaint procedure policy for further details.
