

Can you explain what makes a good poem? Can you create a poem of your own then make improvements to it?

Can you identify different features used in a poem and discuss the effect of these on the reader?

Can you recite a poem so that it is engaging for an audience?

Can you devise a drama based on a narrative and develop the characters in this to create an engaging performance?

Can you retrieve information from a text? Can you say how language is used to create meaning?

Can you create an interesting narrative that has good structure and uses verb tenses correctly?

Can you create a detailed play script using the correct layout?

When reading a play, can you infer information about the plot and characters?

Can you create and present a character in a play using words, facial expressions and good body language?

Can you produce your own advert?

Can you analyse an advert?

Can you recognise the range of techniques used in an advert?

Can you present information to sell a product?

Can you extend your skills when reading fiction texts?

Can you produce a leaflet?

Can you ask relevant questions in a discussion based on something that you have read in a leaflet?

Can you identify the purpose, audience and language features used in leaflet?

Are you able to use persuasive language to write a leaflet?

Can you retrieve information from letters, emails and web pages?

Can you identify the purpose of the letter/ email/ webpage?

Can you respond to letters and emails appropriately?

Can you share your ideas and respond appropriately to others during a discussion?

Pre assessments

<https://www>

